

Pamela Wolters is a graduate of Southwest State and Mankato State Universities. She has written numerous poems, one novel, and is working on her second book. Lessons in violin, voice, and piano are her specialties at the St. Francis Music Center in Little Falls, MN. Having retired from forty years of public school teaching, she maintains her beef farm, doing her own field work. Ms. Wolters is also engaged in photography, visual art, history, archeology, reading, and travel.

POETRY BY

PAMELA WOLTERS

2023

