MIJA COWGIRL PHOTOGRAPHY

Artist Statement

Hello there! My name is Talitha and I am a local photographer in the St. Cloud, MN area. My work is heavily influenced by my passion for the outdoors, horses, and helping others find joy in the little things. The play of light and shadow, along with the natural moments that I attempt to capture remind me, and hopefully you, of the peace and hope that nature can bring to our lives.

As a supporter and passionate advocate of Ukraine and her people, the proceeds from any sunflower photography I sell will go directly to Ukrainian relief and aid. The sunflower is the national flower of Ukraine and represents unity and hope, always turning its head to the sun and committed to facing the light. It represents a strong people, and I've found myself drawn to not only the flower itself, but everything it represents as well.

Enjoy!
